The Clumpett family has struck it rich! A vein of pure silica sand found on their Kansas farm is perfect for computer chips! On their way to Chicago to strike a deal with computer giant Chips Ahoy, Juthro takes a wrong turn on I-80. They stop to ask direction at Busey Bank, where Mr. Clydesdale immediately tried to get them (and their money) to stay.

Sound familiar?

Well, times (and people) have changed since that OTHER family moved out west.

Y'all pay attention now, ya hear?

You won't want to miss out on this fun night filled with entertainment and mystery! Mark your calendars and get your best hillbilly outfit ready!

Register today to secure your spot!
